

Thomas Procella

4344 Chouteau Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63110

taprocella@gmail.com

(314)-502-7490

<https://github.com/ThomasAP>

Skills

Programming Languages:

C#
Python
HTML/CSS

Operating Systems:

Windows

Version Control:

Git

Project Experience:

TechJobsMVC—<https://github.com/ThomasAP/TechJobsMVC>

Tool to help easily manage data for currently available jobs, making it easier to match qualified programmers with apprenticeships.

- Read and expanded on code written by others
- Worked within controller and view portions of MVC application
- Created new action methods to process form submission
- Used Razor syntax to display data within a view

CheeseMVC— <https://github.com/ThomasAP/CheeseMVCPersistent>

Web app that allowed for the creation of categories of cheese and the appendage of cheeses to lists within those categories.

- Configured an individual class to be managed by EntityFramework
- Configured a one-to-many relationship to be managed by EntityFramework
- Configured a many-to-many relationship to be managed by EntityFramework

Work Experience:

Department Manager, Walmart, St. Louis, MO

March 2018-Present

- Complete daily scheduled processes to keep inventory counts accurate
- Stock and arrange merchandise for sale
- Engage customers and address questions and concerns to ensure a pleasant shopping experience

Education:

Launchcode LC101, St. Louis, MO

A programming bootcamp approximately six months long aimed at educating students in the most in-demand technologies in the industry and getting them connected with employers in need of driven, and hardworking individuals to fill open positions.

- Learned and practiced Python fundamentals
- Learned Version Control with Git
- Learned HTML/CSS
- Learned C# and Object-Oriented Programming
- Learned MVC in Asp.Net Core